

You're invited!

The first Science Celebration (CSC) in Invermere, Saturday January 30th 2010, culminates a week of science, technology and innovation activities taking place throughout the region. The Celebration includes eye-popping science shows, demonstrations, challenges and an opportunity to meet people in your community doing cool science everyday.

EVENT: Science Celebration
DATE: Saturday January 30, 2010
TIME: Doors open 10:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.
LOCATION: College of the Rockies
David Thompson Secondary Gymnasium
Invermere, BC

The Science Celebration is a showcase of your community for your community. Here local businesses, schools, organizations and innovators will be profiled so you can share and experience the innovation in science and technology that exists in your own backyard. For more information and to see a video snapshot of a Celebration event, visit www.scienceworld.ca/csc.

I welcome you to join Science World, KRIC and the College of the Rockies for this exciting community enriching day. We look forward to seeing you at the College of the Rockies for a truly amazing family adventure!
